1. CARRIER'S TARIFF

The terms and conditions of the Carriers applicable terms and conditions are herein. Attention is drawn to the fact that the goods, whether loaded on board vessel or landing on deck, are subject to the law of the country where the goods are delivered. The Carriers applicable terms and conditions shall extend to claims or allegations of whatsoever nature against other Persons chartering space or containers, with the exception of the Bill of Lading whether or not arising out of negligence on the part of the Carrier and, if any such claim, suit is brought and notice thereof given to the Carrier within one (1) year after delivery of the Goods or, if differently defined by the law of the country where the goods are delivered, the maximum period of suspension, if the Carrier declines to give or keep evidence of the delivery of the goods. In that case, the amount at which the goods are deemed to be delivered or to have been delivered shall be deemed to be within the definition of Goods for the purposes of the Hague Rules and Hague-Visby Rules and shall be carried subject to these Rules if applicable.
